Linda and Jackie: just a heads up that Tom requested a paragraph for his pocket on the call. Wanted to let you know before you leave for the day. Looks like the Colorado river water is back to baseline and the river will be reopened with a celebration and playing in the water. I know you are working from home tomorrow and I will be available too. Talking with John at 4. More later!! Thanks for everything! I shared your new fantastic spreadsheet with John.

Sorry – I realized as soon as I hit SEND on my last message to you that I not saved the most recent version of the spreadsheet before sending it. Here is the correct file. Linda
